Hanover, April 8. N. S. An Expreſs diſpatch'd by Monſieur Fabricius, Envoy from the Duke Adminiſtrator of Holſtein to the King of Sueden, paſſed through this Place in his way to Gottorp, with Letters from Bender, dated the Twenty ſixth of February, which bring Advice, that ſeveral Effendis, and a great number of the Janizaries, ſince the Reſtitution of Aſoph, and the Demoliſhing of Taganrock, were for the maintaining of the Peace between the Czar and the Ottoman Port, but that the Sultan had declared, that he would put himſelf at the Head of a more numerous Army than had appear'd in the Field the laſt Campagne under the Grand Vizir, unleſs the Czar would execute every particular Article that had been agreed on when the Peace was concluded.

The States of Brabant being met to Day, they have deſired the Baron to appear at their Aſſembly, and inform them of his Imperial Majeſty's Pleaſure upon this Occaſion. The States of Flanders who adjourn'd themſelves till the Eighteenth, have likewiſe deſired that Miniſter to repair to their Aſſembly at Gand, to the ſame Purpoſe. The States of Hainault have granted Ninety thouſand of the Hundred thouſand Florins demanded of them for this Service, and proper Meaſures are already taken for delivering the Bread and Forage to thoſe Troops from Maeſtricht, when they ſhall be on their Paſſage towards the Army. Meſſieurs Hopp and Slingerland, Deputies of Holland for reviewing the Forces in the Pay of that Province, which are now Quarter'd in Brabant, having executed their Commiſſion here, will ſet out to Morrow for Mons. The Confederate Troops from the Meuſe, are actually upon their March through this City towards the Place of the General Rendezvous of the Army, and part of this Garriſon will March with them this Day, and the Remainder, together with the Troops of Hanover, that have been Quarter'd on the Demer. Upon theſe Motions of the Confederate Forces, thoſe of the Enemies in the Garriſons upon the Sambre, marched out about two Days ſince, and the Troops of the Houſhold, with others who had their Winter Quarters in the remote Parts of France, are in full March towards Peronne.
